Background

Chee Keong is good at computer games and loves Counter Strike, a very addictive shoot out game between elite police commandos and terrorists.

He spent his time playing the game at cyber cafes and one evening took the game out of the computer by planning a strategy to hit a rival gang late in the night. The police stepped in and it was game over. Also as a tactical move they sent him to Beyond Social Services.

Now Chee Keong plans strategies for his future. He foresees a future in computer games and hopes to get an education that enables him to design some himself.

Challenges He Faces

To balance his time between friends, games and studies
